3rd April 1905

My dear Sir Krishna Murti

I enclose some bills received from Mr Colton by this mail. In my opinion they are reasonable and may be paid. The items relating to railway journey and hotel expenses amount to £40., or Rs600.The estimate under these heads amounted to ~~Rs~~ Rs670, v. my letter of the 10th Feby 1904 and G.O of the 29th February. The baggage expenses ,I could not calculate, and they are charges over which neither we nor Mr Colton have much control.Mr Colton adds:- "Of course there were innumerable other small payments, but we will let those slide".

As to other matters, Mr Colton says:-"The remittance on account of work has safely come to hand, also the busts and sketches. I hope to send the bust of His Highness to the Academy". This is so far satisfactory.

Yours sincerely,

Macnaughton
